Award winning artist Ben has been painting professional for over fifteen years. Working in oil, watercolour, and more recently sculpture, Ben paints a wide range of subject matter based on what inspires him, with his love for the Australian landscape being the subject that is foremost. His work runs the full spectrum from representational through to abstraction, which he frequently combines.

During his professional career Ben has held several solo exhibitions, as well as won awards that have included the Inaugural Mavis Little Artist of the Year Award, Victorian Artists' Society, the Castle-maine James Farrell Self Portrait Prize, and the A.M.E. Bale Travelling Scholarship and Art Prize Major Award.

Ben has also facilitated the execution of several major art projects in schools and projects in conjunction with local government and private departments – including The City of Greater Bendigo, Coliban Water, NCCA, Department of Primary Industries.

In addition to creating art, Ben tutors privately and at the Victorian Artists' Society
