

Floral Ink Art Workshop

with Sofie Dieu

Date/Time: Sat 12 Oct 10am - 4pm

Venue: Sherbrooke Gallery

62 Monbulk Rd Belgrave

Cost: $110 SAS & EAS Members
$120 Non-members

BYO lunch. Tea/Coffee provided

This all-day floral painting workshop with a strong emphasis on Australian native plants, is ideal for artists who are interested in approaching floral painting in a detailed and creative way that still allows personal interpretation. Suitable for artists at all levels.

Participants will create several paintings including those on silk paper and A4 and A3 watercolour sheets.

What to Bring

- 1 X A4 and 1 X A3 watercolour paper
- 2 brushes (size 2 & 3 sable or synthetic)
- 2 large brushes (1 for water/1 for glue)
- PVA craft glue (25ml)
- Apron, rags, notebook, pen, HB pencil
- Plants and/or flowers of your choice.

Bookings essential and spaces limited.

Don't Miss Out — Book Today!

To book visit

<https://www.trybooking.com/BELSK>

Enquiries phone

Leanne Vassallo on 0414 458 918

About Sofie Dieu. International artist and teacher Sophie creates diverse works across several mediums. She has been part of numerous group exhibitions where she has been a finalist and winner of several awards including the 2016 Waterhouse Natural Science Art Prize as well as the 2018 John Leslie Art Prize.

Over the past four years Sophie has held many solo exhibitions, including her 'Gare d'Anjon' held in France.

Sophie studied in France and holds a Bachelor of textile design and Sculpture from the Olivier de Serres Art School.

www.sherbrookegallery.com

62 Monbulk Rd, Belgrave